

❖ ❖ Upcoming AOF Events ❖ ❖

➤ Free Movie Nights!

Fridays, Sep 6 & Sep 20, 2019, 7pm – 10pm

Twice a month, Reason Center (RC) and AOF host a Free Movie Night just for you, under an excellent MPLC License. Alas, we can't name the movies. But we can hint.

The first (Sept 6) is a 2013 documentary from director Jeremiah Camara that looks at the proliferation of churches in American communities of color and the correlation with poverty and powerlessness. Why so many churches yet so many social problems? It raises serious questions about how religious faith can undermine productivity. The second movie (Sept 20) is a 1983 British musical comedy that looks at life's meaning in all its stages but fails to answer any big questions -- well, because Monty Python!

Can't guess? Don't worry. Just contact Reason Center (see info below). They'll tell you, then you can tell anyone.

Movie Night is an informal, picnic-style, family event. The venue has a huge silver screen and dynamic sound system. Chairs are available, but it's OK to bring blankets, pillows, lawn chairs and your own snacks & beverage, non-alcoholic please. RC may provide fluffy, buttery theatre popcorn. Kids are welcome if they're cool -- and the movie is appropriate.

This is especially for Reason Center members, but non-members are welcome too. RC may beg a small donation to cover costs. How can you become a member? Sign up at <http://reasoncenter.com/donate/>. Membership is a measly $5 a month, is tax deductible if you itemize, and the perks (like this one) are like the bright side of life.

Contact: Reason Center, 916-426-6416, or email <reasoncenter (at) gmail (dot) com>.

Location: Reason Center, 1824 Tribute Rd, Suite A, Sacramento. Map: <https://goo.gl/iVQL8z>.

Free Movie Nights occur on a Friday evening each month. Maybe two Fridays. Suggest your own fave film for next time!

➤ Board of Directors Meeting

Tuesday, Sep 10, 2019, 7pm – 9pm

This is an AOF planning meeting for AOF Directors & officers, but open to all interested friends and members. These occur about every other month, and aren't as dull as you think (yes they are) (shaddup). You are welcome to join us and meet the Board.

Location: Reason Center, 1824 Tribute Rd, Suite A, Sacramento. Map: <https://goo.gl/iVQL8z>.

Contact: See <http://www.aofonline.org/contact.html>, the AOF contact page.

Please bring your ideas for AOF, your strategies, your event & activity suggestions -- most of all, your volunteerism.

➤ Adopt-a-Highway Cleanup

Saturday, Sep 14, 2019, 9am - 11am

If you visit the two-mile stretch of Highway 99 from Elkhorn Boulevard to Elverta Road, you might notice: it looks pretty tidy! That's us. That's the Sac-area freethinkers who "adopted" it in July 1995. We've cared for it, nurtured it, rescued it lovingly from litter and debris, and received recognition for our work. It is one of our more successful civic efforts, proving that freethinkers can also serve the community.

So join us, please join us! Enjoy a commune with nature; do a deed for the environment and local area wildlife. The refuse that we collect would otherwise ultimately be swept by the rain into tributaries and into the ocean, degrading habitat, and leading to a slow death for many sea creatures.

As ever, the stalwart activity captain will provide all safety equipment, including comfortable, natty hard-hats and gloves, stylish safety vests, collection bags, and handy trash pickers. The clean-up takes a scant two hours. Please dress for the season. It may be a good idea to bring a backpack or fanny-pack to carry 3 or 4 trash bags.

To get there, go north from Sacramento on I-5, past the Sleep Train Arena. Take the "Highway 99 - Yuba City, Marysville" exit. Exit at Elkhorn Boulevard less than a mile north. Turn left, cross the overpass. The park-&-ride lot will be on your left.

Contact: 916-447-2169 (Don Knutson), or see <http://www.aofonline.org/contact.html>.

Location: Caltrans Park-&-Ride lot, W. Elkhorn Blvd. Map at <https://goo.gl/maps/zw3Rwct9yR52>.

Notes: This is a great event for older children, but please leave smalls safe at home.

➤ Freethought Dinner Social

Saturday, Sep 14, 2019, 6pm – 8pm

The Freethought Dinner Social is a casual dine-out for friends and members of the local community of reason, and any who wish to join us. Everyone loves food! So join the hungry freethinkers at Selland's Market Café for fine food, good drink and sparkling conversation. But please tell the beleaguered contact person, see below, because she must make reservations. For the lovely menu, see <https://www.sellands.com/menu/>.

Location: Selland's Market Café, 915 Broadway, Sac., ph 916-732-3390, map at <https://goo.gl/maps/T3ie2QRM7VJRJ1SE9>.

Contact: 916-457-9123 (Lynne), or email: "thelynnster55 (at) comcast (dot) net".

Freethought Dinner Socials occur at various Sac-area 'raunts. Family friendly and all are welcome. (And don't be shy, suggest your own favorite eatery for next time.)

☞ What, no General Membership Meeting? Sigh, it's true. AOF currently plans none until October. Maybe you can help! Contact AOF or the Program Chair (see <http://www.aofonline.org/contact.html>) with your speaker or meeting ideas.

✧ ✧ Secular Holidays ✧ ✧

➤ Talk Like a Pirate Day Thursday, Sep 19, 2019

Avast ye lubbers. International Talk Like a Pirate Day is a day to show your Piratude. Created in 1995 by John Baur and Mark Summers, promulgated to worldwide popularity by humorist Dave Barry in a syndicated column, we can celebrate this secular holiday in many ways: garb like pirates, talk like pirates, swill grog like pirates, stagger and fall down like pirates. What's grog? Never mind, just find some and swill. Then haul your keel, shiver your timbers, and do wha' ever else seem right and proper, 'cause this be a day to celebrate. More info at https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/International\_Talk\_Like\_a\_Pirate\_Day.

➤ Equinox (September) Monday, Sep 23, 2019

The September Equinox is one of two days in the calendar year when day hours almost equal the night. In the northern hemisphere it is also the first day of Autumn or Fall (Gregorian calendar), called the Autumnal Equinox. (In the southern hemisphere it is the first day of Spring.)

The Autumnal Equinox marks when green things begin to shed, when growth which was young in the spring has reached maturity. Animals prepare for winter, tree leaves turn colors, and the air takes a chill. In most cultures this a time for harvest and taking stock of life's fragility. It is a time when people begin noticing the waning hours of daylight in anticipation of the winter. Since this time of year is one of the most temperate, it is also a good time to reflect on the meaning of life.

The Autumnal Equinox also signals the return of weather that favors slowing down, introspection, and conservation. Many cultures celebrate the harvest as a means to defeat the starvation brought on by winter. It is also a time closely associated with the dead. Though the dead do not return to life nor walk the earth this time of the year, it is well to memorialize those no longer with us. For freethinkers the Autumnal Equinox is a good time to celebrate the lives of those who contributed to the freethought movement, and a day to contemplate your thoughts on what you invest in life.

➤ Banned Book Week

Monday, Sep 22 to Saturday, Sep 28, 2019

The last week of September marks Banned Books Week, a celebration of the Freedom to Read, established by the American Library Association in 1981 in response to growing attempts to ban books in public libraries across the country. First observed in 1982, we celebrate it each year during the last week of September, to remind our fellow citizens not to take for granted their freedom to read the written word.

Every year bookstores and libraries across the United States celebrate Banned Books Week with displays of and readings from books that have been banned or threatened throughout history. Such works range from the Bible and Thomas Paine's The Age of Reason to Shakespeare's Hamlet, Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and J.K Rowling's Harry Potter series, and has included books on atheism, science, tolerance, social issues, love and sex, and philosophy. Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Thomas Paine, Voltaire, Aristophanes, Margaret Sanger, Mary Shelley, Ambrose Bierce, Charles Darwin, George Eliot, Mark Twain and John Locke were all victims of censorship during their lifetimes and still face censorship in some sections of the world today.

Banned Books Week stands as a reminder that freedom is precious, that without constant diligence and defiance we can lose it, even in the United States. This should motivate freethinkers everywhere to read banned books, discuss them, and protect the rights of all Americans to read what they want, when they want, in libraries across the country.

Banned Books Week sponsors include the ...

American Booksellers Association,
American Booksellers Foundation of Free Expression,
American Library Association (ALA),
Association of American Publishers,
American Society of Journalists and Authors, and National Association of College Stores.

It is endorsed by the Library of Congress Center for the Book.

➤ Blasphemy Day

Monday, Sep 30, 2019

Secularists and freethinkers worldwide celebrate International Blasphemy Day or "Blasphemy Rights Day," marking the anniversary of when images of Muhammad appeared in the Denmark newspaper Jyllands-Posten in 2005. Conservative Muslims reacted to the drawings with worldwide protests, riots, embassy burnings and death threats.

Founded in 2009 by Ronald Lindsay, Director of the Center of Inquiry in Ahmherst, NY, and promoted by the Campaign for Free Expression, this secular holiday is now a platform for individuals freely to express criticisms of religion and religious establishments. As Ronald Lindsay said in a television interview: "... religious beliefs should be subject to examination and criticism just as political beliefs are, but we have a taboo on religion."

"... we're against restrictions on speech based purely on the possibility that some people might be offended," he also said; "Because if you go down that path there's no end to it."

Participants have celebrated Blasphemy Day in various ways: with speeches, art exhibitions, feasts, poetry, music and song, and by taking the Blasphemy Challenge. Use your imagination!

Book Review

No God? No Problem* by Tom Tyner, the Amiable Atheist (reviewed by Editor Fran)

No God? No Problem is a humorous and informative book that touches on many aspects of religion from christianity, agnosticism, creationism, and includes discussions of secular humanism and the big bang theory. The narrative begins with the direct statement "Let's throw it out there right now: there is no God", equating belief in an omniscient god with belief in Santa Claus, Easter Bunny and the Tooth Fairy.

The book lists 28 topics in its "Unholy Contents" list, and each topic has a cartoon associated with it. Every topic makes a cogent point expressed in a humorous way. The book discusses numerous aspects of the effects of religion on humanity. One of the main points seems to be that if there were a god, things would be different. A loving, all powerful, all knowing god wouldn't allow all of the suffering that exists in the world.

The section titled When the Cookie Crumbles suggests a recovery program for those who may need help with losing faith:

1. Play John Lennon's Imagine
2. Engage in Blasphemy
3. Have a Holy Grail scavenger hunt ("Surprise! There is no Holy Grail!")
4. Repeat this poem: There is no God and I am glad, I don't need a manufactured dad, I've got a nice dad of my own, and I can hit him up for a loan.
5. Convert believers

I found the book fun to read. Mr. Tyner informed me that he is not looking to make any money on the book at this point. You can get a free eBook copy by emailing breadanpub@aol.com and requesting a copy. He will send it to your email address to download.

AOF Mission Statement:

"The purpose of Atheists and Other Freethinkers (AOF) is to promote the civic understanding of atheism and the acceptance of atheists in our community. Through educational programs, projects, and publications, AOF will extend secular perspectives, including the separation of religion and government and the right to think and speak freely on these perspectives."

What is a Freethinker? One striving to form opinions of life, religion, politics and philosophy on the grounds of reason and experience, rather than tradition, authority or custom. He or she need not be an atheist, though in a religious society most atheists do tend to be freethinkers.

AOF supports a benign separation of Church and State as the best means to protect the liberty and intellectual commerce of citizens. "... to keep forever from these shores the ceaseless strife that has soaked the soil of Europe in blood for centuries" (James Madison, 1803).

Our vision: to be a venue where secular and unchurched citizens can socialize, dialog, develop friendships and enjoy shared company. AOF does not discriminate on such grounds as race, sexual orientation, age, gender, class, physical debility or (*cough*) religion. We welcome the fair-minded of all political persuasions and preferences. Any who will treat others with respect and dignity may join.

Donations to AOF are tax deductible, and the newsletter is free by email. Please share with sympathetic friends.
